

Barcelona, September 1st, 2012

To whoever it may concern,

We want to inform you that on June 5th, 2012, Odeco Electrónica, S.A.U. (in liquidation), ODECO, reached an agreement with Fixalia Electronic Solutions, S.L., FIXALIA, for the transfer of all technical knowledge, documentation, test material, spare parts ... on an exclusive basis, so as FIXALIA could be in the best possible condition so as to continue providing service to the ODECO installed equipment base, after the date the company would cease to operate, July 31st, 2012.

ODECO has come to know that several companies are presenting themselves as if they had also received all this information and material from ODECO. ODECO wants to make clear that this is not true and that FIXALIA is the only company that has received this documentation and material, and that no other company can present itself as the legal owner of all this assets.

Sincerely yours,

Daniel Llinàs
